

Explore the Valley. Discover the World.

Table for Ten

Your map to the museums

www.museums10.org

facebook/museums10

Delicious museum exhibitions and events

Table for Ten

THE ART, HISTORY & SCIENCE OF FOOD

SUMMER/FALL 2010

PRESENTED BY museums10

www.museums10.org

A flavorful menu of museum exhibitions, public programs, and special events

Organized by Museums10—a partnership of ten outstanding museums and galleries—Table for Ten brings together diverse offerings—from exhibitions and cooking demonstrations to lectures and tastings—including a multi-media show at the Paradise City Arts Festival with a silent art auction and food drive to benefit the Food Bank of Western Massachusetts.

Visit www.museums10.org for a full menu of events.

Edible events:

From gourmet food & wine tastings to open hearth cooking, a baking contest, and a Victorian-era feast—Museums10 has it all! For a full menu of the edible events accompanying our Table for Ten exhibitions visit www.museums10.org.

Our sponsors' events:

- Join WGBY for The French Connection: A Gala Tribute to Julia Child and Charlotte Turgeon, 7 restaurants and 7 special guests at Hotel Northampton on November 1, details at www.wgby.org.
- Taste the View at CISA's celebration of local farms and produce (September 24).
- The Place of Taste: An Exploration of Food, Culture, and Community at Williams College for the 10th anniversary of Gastronomica: The Journal of Food and Culture (October 2).
- Enjoy art, sensational cuisine and live jazz at the Paradise City Arts Festival (October 9-11).
- Discover a feast of fall food-themed readings at the Odyssey Bookshop.
- Restaurant week in Northampton (Nov. 29-Dec. 5).

Sponsors:

Platinum Sponsors & Partners

Gold Sponsors & Partners

Bronze Sponsors & Partners

Amherst Chamber of Commerce
Odyssey Bookshop
Downtown Northampton

Deerfield Inn
Herrell's Ice Cream

Table for Ten

Esn! Jewish Food in the New World

May 16, 2010 - October 3, 2010

NATIONAL YIDDISH BOOK CENTER

The tale of the American Jewish experience in America—the search for a balance between acculturation and identity—has long been told in kitchen pots and grocery shelves, and it continues today.

Luscious: Paintings by Emily Eveleth

July 9, 2010 - October 24, 2010

Sugar: Maria Magdalena Campos-Pons

September 24, 2010 - January 2, 2011

THE SMITH COLLEGE MUSEUM OF ART

Luscious showcases Eveleth's monumental paintings of her signature subject: jam-filled doughnuts. Sugar features a new site-specific project and two earlier installations addressing the artist's family ties to the sugar industry in Cuba and its historical association with the Atlantic slave trade.

Dinner is Served!: Dining and the Decorative Arts in Early America

August 21, 2010 - February 2011

HISTORIC DEERFIELD

A multi-site exploration of the social, cultural, and artistic importance of dining in early America. Discover exotic accoutrements of dining à la française, and enjoy open hearth cooking demonstrations.

For more information & a full menu of events, visit www.museums10.org.

Wine & Spirit: Rituals, Remedies & Revelry

September 2, 2010 - December 12, 2010

MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE ART MUSEUM

What is the importance of wine in Western culture? Trace its timeless story through art from antiquity to the present day. The works on display illustrate wine's changing relationship to religious ritual, healing, and social exchange.

What's Cooking at the Mead?

September 12, 2010 - November 21, 2010

MEAD ART MUSEUM AT AMHERST COLLEGE

A Sunday gallery talk series featuring museum curators and educators in a dialogue with local restaurateurs about themes of food and dining in art. The tours will conclude with gourmet refreshments created by noted chefs from the area.

A Feast for the Eyes

September 21, 2010 - March 20, 2011

ERIC CARLE MUSEUM OF PICTURE BOOK ART

Join us for a smorgasbord of picture book art that explores the role food plays throughout children's literature. Eric Carle and other artists from our permanent collection illustrate a range of themes, from food as sustenance to food as the center of social life.

Art has a 'Palate': The Dickinsons & Dining

Permanent exhibit starting September 25, 2010

EMILY DICKINSON MUSEUM

Why did Emily Dickinson once write to her sister-in-law, "Art has a 'Palate' as well as an Easel"? Find out at The Evergreens (home of Emily Dickinson's brother), a center of fine hospitality and conversation in 19th century Amherst.

Tell Me What You Eat...

September 28, 2010 - January 2, 2011

AMHERST COLLEGE MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

Find clues to the diets of extinct animals in their fossilized teeth, stomach contents and even feces. Discover how these animals ate and lived.

The Politics of Food

September, 2010 - October, 2010

HAMPSHIRE COLLEGE ART GALLERY

Contemporary art focused on the poetics and politics of food with ties to the Hampshire College farm center.

A Movable Feast

Fall 2010

UNIVERSITY GALLERY AT UMASS AMHERST

A public art project in collaboration with Nuestras Raices Inc. of Holyoke will transform a traditional mobile food cart into a visual and culinary movable feast. Meals and discussions about healthy community-based food practices will be transformed into "artworks."

PARTNER EXHIBITIONS:

Cabinet of Culinary Curiosities

August 5, 2010 - December 22, 2010

Books and manuscripts from the Mortimer rare book room display hidden treasures at the Smith College Neilson Library.

create: Food as Artistic Inspiration

October 9, 2010 - October 11, 2010

A juried show at the Paradise City Arts Festival. The festival also features fun Museums10 family activities.

Drowned in a Glass of Water

July 17, 2010 - September 7, 2010
and September 25, 2010 - February 6, 2011

An Installation by Pepón Osorio in North Adams this summer and at the Williams College Museum of Art this Fall.

A delicious dining contest just for you!

Ten restaurant gift certificates

Win a $200 gift certificate to one of these ten delicious local restaurants

Blue Heron Restaurant
413.665.2102
www.blueherondining.com

Spoletto
413.586.6313
www.spoletorestaurants.com

Carmelina's at the Commons
413.584.8000
www.carmelinas.com

Delaney House
413.532.1800
www.logcabin-delaney.com

Chez Albert
413.253.3811
www.chezalbert.net

Champney's Restaurant & Tavern at the Deerfield Inn
413.774.5587
www.champneysrestaurant.com

Food 101
413.535.3101
www.food101bistro.com

Tabellas Restaurant
413.253.0220
www.tabellarestaurant.com

Lattitude Restaurant
413.241.8888
www.lattitude1338.com

Hope & Olive
413.774.3150
www.hopeandolive.com

It's easy to enter!

- 1 Visit a minimum of 2 Museums10 exhibitions
- 2 Get a stamp at each location, the more stamps you get the more chances you have to win
- 3 Fill out the form
- 4 Cut it out
- 5 Mail it in!

Museums10 Dinner Prize Program
c/o Five Colleges, Inc.
97 Spring Street, Amherst, MA 01002

Name

Address

City

State Zip Code

Phone number

E-mail

Get Stamped:

Rules: No purchase necessary. Must be 18 or over to participate. Employees of participating Table for 10 partners and their immediate families are not eligible. Entries must be postmarked by Dec. 31, 2010.